Structural Engineer
(JUNEAD NATHANI)

I undertake engineering design liability up to 05 years from issuing stability certificate. The structure needs to re-inspect and stability certificate has to be revised thereafter. I am not liable and responsible for any defects, damages, and loss of life and/or any other issues with regards to workmanship, unapproved structural changes, non-maintained work and force majeure, at any point of time. Co-ordination of structural drawings in accordance with approved buildings plans will be the responsibility of the plan-submitting agency to the Authority.
